1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

In the opinion of the management of Flamel Technologies S.A. (the "Company"), the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for interim financial statements. Accordingly, these Financial Statements do not include all of the information and footnotes required for complete annual financial statements, since certain footnotes and other financial information required by generally accepted accounting principles in the United States (US GAAP) can be condensed or omitted for interim reporting requirements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of only normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation of our financial position and operating results have been included.

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Operating results for the three months ended March 31, 2008 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2008. These condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited annual financial statements.

4. RESEARCH TAX CREDIT

The French government provides tax credits to companies for spending on innovative research and development. Income tax benefits correspond to these French research tax credits, which are credited against income taxes payable in each of the four years after being incurred or, if not so utilized, are recoverable in cash.

Effective January 1, 2008 French tax legislation has changed to the extent that the tax credit is due solely on the volume of expenditure for research and development in the period. Prior to January 1, 2008 the tax credit was calculated based on both the annual volume of research and development expenditure and on the increase in research and expenditure compared with the average of the previous two years. Up until December 31, 2007 the Company recorded the tax credit at the end of the fiscal year. As of January 1, 2008 the tax credit is accrued quarterly based on qualifying research and development expenditure during the quarter.

For the first three months period ended March 31, 2008 the credit amounted to $1,137,000.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This report on Form 6-K contains forward-looking statements. We may make additional written or oral forward-looking statements from time to time in filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission or otherwise. The words 'believe,' 'expect,' 'anticipate,' 'project' and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date the statement is made. Such forward-looking statements are within the meaning of that term in Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Although we believe that our expectations are based on reasonable assumptions within the bounds of our knowledge of our business and operations, our business is subject to significant risks and there can be no assurance that actual results of our development and manufacturing activities and our results of operations will not differ materially from our expectations. Factors that could cause actual results to differ from expectations include, among others those listed in Part II, Item 1A, Risk Factors.

Forward-looking statements are subject to inherent risks and uncertainties, some of which cannot be predicted or quantified. Future events and actual results could differ materially from those set forth in, contemplated by or underlying the forward-looking statements. We undertake no obligation to update these forward-looking statements as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. You should not place undue reliance on these forward looking statements. Statements in this report on Form 6-K and in our annual report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007, including those set forth in 'Risk Factors,' describe factors, among others, that could contribute to or cause such differences.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

For the first three months of 2008, Flamel reported total revenues of $10.9 million compared to $9.6 million for the first three months of 2007.

License and research revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2008 were $3.5 million compared to $3.1 million for the first three months of 2007, and included one milestone payment for a total amount of €0.5million ($0.75 million) received from Merck-Serono.

Product sales and services, pursuant to the company's supply contract with GSK totaled $4.7 million for the first three months of 2008 compared to $5.4 million for the first three months of 2007.

Other revenues were $2.6 million for the three months ended March 31, 2008 compared to $1.1 million for the first three months of 2007 and included royalties on sales of Coreg CR.

Operational expenses decreased to $15.8 million during the first quarter of 2008 from $19.1 million a year ago as a result of efforts to contain operating costs and prioritize our expenditure.

Costs of goods and services sold were $2.4 million, as compared to $4.5 million in the first three months of 2007 since in 2007 our expenditure was focused on ensuring sufficient product in the pipeline for launch of Coreg CR while in 2008 our expenditure is at a level to meet ongoing demand.

Research and development expenditures were $9.3 million, compared to $10.6 million in the year-ago period. Research and development expenses before non-cash stock compensation cost were $8 million compared to $9 million in the year-ago period.

SG&A expenses during the quarter were comparable with the year-ago quarter at $4.1 million.

Net loss for the first three months was ($3.7) million, compared to a net loss of ($9.1) million in the first three months of 2007. Net loss per share (basic) for the first three months of 2007 was ($0.15), compared to net loss per share in the year-ago period of ($0.38).

Set forth below and in our Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2007 is a discussion of risks related to our industry and our business. In addition to the other information in this document, you should consider carefully the following risk factors. Any of these risks or the occurrence of any one or more of the uncertainties described below could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition and the performance of our business.

- our products and product candidates, if approved for marketing, may not produce significant revenues and we rely on our partners to determine the regulatory and marketing strategies;
- our products and product candidates, in commercial use, may have unintended side effects, adverse reactions or incidents of misuse;
- we may enter into a collaboration with a third party to market or fund a proprietary product candidate and the terms of such a collaboration may not meet our expectations;
- our delivery technologies or product development efforts may not produce safe, effective or commercially viable products;
- our collaborators could elect to terminate or delay programs at any time and disputes with collaborators or failure to negotiate acceptable new collaborative arrangements for our technologies could occur;
- we may be unable to manufacture or, if our products are successful, scale-up the manufacturing of our products economically or on a commercial scale;
- unexpected events could interrupt manufacturing operations at our facilities, which could be the sole source of supply for these products;
- after the completion of clinical trials of products incorporating our technologies and the submission to the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) of a New Drug Application, or NDA, for marketing approval and to other health authorities as a marketing authorization application, the FDA or other health authorities could refuse to accept such filings or could request additional pre-clinical or clinical studies be conducted, each of which could result in significant delays, or such authorities could refuse to approve the product at all;

- our product candidates could be ineffective or unsafe during pre-clinical studies and clinical trials, and we and our collaborators may not be permitted by regulatory authorities to undertake new or additional clinical trials for product candidates incorporating our technologies, or clinical trials could be delayed;
- we may experience significant delays in clinical trials on our products;
- we may not realize any revenue from milestone or royalty payments under our license agreements with our partners, including GlaxoSmithKline;
- even if our product candidates appear promising at an early stage of development, product candidates could fail to receive necessary regulatory approvals, be difficult to manufacture on a large scale, be uneconomical, fail to achieve market acceptance, be precluded from commercialization by proprietary rights of third parties or experience substantial competition in the marketplace;
- technological changes in the biotechnology or pharmaceutical industries could render our product candidates obsolete or noncompetitive;
- we may face difficulties or set-backs in obtaining and enforcing our patents or defending claims of patent infringement by others; and
- we may need to raise substantial additional funding to continue research and development programs and clinical trials and could incur difficulties or setbacks in raising such funds.
